OK Thanks Rich!!

- I'll get caught up with John next week...I'd hoped we'd get historical data with this batch of response but nothing so far from the 104E. Thanks

Karen, John will have to help you. I am not that familiar with the scribe.net version.

Rich- I'm sorry! I see the data format but no data ,is there an electronic link to get into the data system itself??

The password was provided but not the route to access it? Sorry if I'm just being dense but I'm not familiar with the scribe date base...

THANKS!!!!
